2.52	0.88	0.21
1.89	0.96	0.22

The 4 pieces of this item cannot be fitted, but I am sure they are the same item. The stone is dark gray, very fine textured, and breaks with a clean, flat cleavage. Planes are even flat when they go against the natural cleavage planes. The larger piece looks either used or somewhat finished: in contrast to the sharp natural breaks, its edges are rounded and smooth. The broader flat sides (2 of them) are slightly glossy. I believe this to be some sort of smoother or abrader.
